THE CLASS OF '75'

by Dianne Dixon

We all came together
Four years ago today -
Kopperston, Huff Creek, Matheny,
Oceana, and others, along the way.

We came to know each other,
Each one of us the same,
Afraid and excited,
Starting equally at life's game.

The years went by so quickly,
In the twinkling of an eye;
Four years of our lives gone.
Now we say our last good-bye.

Long will the memories linger,
Our laughter fill these halls;
Each and every person's name
Embedded in these walls.

To the school we leave our hearts,
Ever loyal and true.
To the faculty, our thanks
For all you tried to do.

Many thoughts fill our heads
On our Graduation Day:
Memories, both good and bad,
Of truths and trials along the way.

As we prepare to leave here
For the last time, all as one,
Each a part of the other,
It ends as it had begun.

Quietly we're waiting,
Diplomas in hand,
Tears are shed so quietly -
The Alma Mater from the band.

A sadness unlike any other
Creeps, uneasy and alive;
Our last walk together -
The CLASS OF '75.

Theme: We Shall Never Pass
This Way Again
Motto: Give Each Day of Life
Your Best
Colors: The Rainbow
Flower: Carnation

Thank all of you for helping us to remember the way we were in 1975.
